Dining On Campus

PFW offers plenty of options if you're hungry on campus. Most campus dining options are operated by Fresh Ideas (with the exception of Bon Bon's Coffee), which gives you lots of choices. While meal plans are charged to student accounts and therefore only available to staff if you are also a student, staff can use Don Dollars!

Meal Plans

Meal plans allow you to purchase packages of 3, 5, or 10 meals per week at Don's at Walb. Once you sign up and pay for your plan, simply swipe your Mastodon ID Card at checkout. Pre-paying for your meals with a meal plan is cheaper per meal than paying with cash or card. You can also add Don Dollars to a meal plan for even more flexible dining options. Get more details, including how to set up or change a meal plan if you are a student, on the Meal Plans website.

Don Dollars

Don Dollars is a separate account that you can access by swiping your Mastodon Card. You can purchase Don Dollars without getting a meal plan. Don Dollars are accepted at Einstein Bros Bagels, Don's at Walb, and Java Spot on campus—plus you get a 5% discount on your purchase for using Don Dollars. (Bon Bon's does not accept Don Dollars.) They are also accepted at Hungry Howie's, Don Tacos, CVS on the corner of Crescent Ave and Hobson Rd, and new this year can be used on the Grubhub app! Set up your Don Dollars account and deposit funds at pfw.edu/eaccounts. More details on the Don Dollars page.

Did You Know?

If you work with students, they may have questions about drops, withdrawals, appeals, and other registration-related issues. The attached reference sheet will help you give them better information. (IU students have different rules—direct them to their IU advisor.)

Resource Highlight: HR is Back!

Human Resources is back on the main campus! As of July 15th, their office is now in Kettler Hall, room 139. This makes them even more easily available to help support you in your job.

Useful HR contacts to know:

Benefits, leaves, and retirement: Amy Jagger, jaggera@pfw.edu

Payroll and timekeeping: payroll@pfw.edu

Institutional equity and Title IX: Christine Marcuccilli, marcuccc@pfw.edu

For other inquiries, visit the HR FAQ page or email hr@pfw.edu and they will route you to the right person to help with your request.

Benefit Breakdown: AffirmedRX

In the new benefits year, AffirmedRX will be replacing CVS Caremark for non-specialty medications. AffirmedRX will offer dedicated patient care advocates specifically for the Purdue plan.

They will also have a more stable formulary list, or list of medications they cover. AffirmedRX changes their list less often than Caremark, and unlike Caremark, they will allow input from Purdue on those changes. This results in more predictable costs for you.

AffirmedRX also supports a wider network of pharmacies, including Amazon and Mark Cuban's Cost Plus.

Watch for more information on AffirmedRX as open enrollment approaches.
