

Question Time

This was raised at the special Senate meeting on October 3, but we are curious if conversations on this question have advanced at all. How will the central administration share a comprehensive list of the feedback that was received on Action Plan 41 with the campus community? How will the central administration share how it is responding to each item?

Executive Committee