FAFSA Delayed/Changing

Hi, students,

I know it is hard to think about the 2024–25 academic year that kicks off next August—and who could blame you—the spring semester hasn't even started yet, but there are some critical changes coming to the FAFSA that you fill out to potentially qualify for financial aid, scholarships, etc. And we want you to have as much information as you can.

The release of the 2024–25 FAFSA is delayed this year due to the FAFSA Simplification Act and the extensive revamp of the processes and systems used for distributing federal aid. Historically, the FAFSA has been accessible on Oct. 1 each year. However, for the 2024–25 academic year, it won't be available until sometime in December. The exact date is still pending confirmation.

Please know the Office of Financial Aid remains committed to supporting you. If you haven't already submitted your FAFSA for the current academic year, there's still time; the deadline for the 2023–24 FAFSA is June 30, 2024. We're here to assist you in completing the 2023–24 FAFSA, and offer guidance and address any questions you may have about the upcoming 2024–25 FAFSA.

As always, when the 2024–25 FAFSA becomes available, the Office of Financial Aid will be available to assist you through the process.

We will release new information as soon as we have it. Until then, please know you can always contact the financial aid team with questions or concerns. The best way to do so is to email fnaid@pfw.edu.

Finally, for those who celebrate, I wish you a wonderful Thanksgiving this Thursday. Please know, the university is closed Thursday and Friday, Nov. 23–24. See you back on campus next Monday.

Thankful for all of you,

Dr. Krissy Surface
