Spring Break is Just Around the Corner

Hey students,

I hope the more frequent sunshine this past week has you thinking about spring—I sure am! And, it's perfect timing because spring break is just around the corner. Remember, there are no classes March 4-8.

Whether you are traveling to a beach town, going back to where you grew up, or staying right here in Fort Wayne, I hope you have a relaxing, safe, and productive week off. It is the perfect time for a mixture of relaxation and getting everything in order to successfully finish out the semester. I encourage you to do both so when you return, you are rejuvenated and ready to finish strong!

Classes will resume on Monday, March 11, unless otherwise indicated by your specific instructor. We have a very exciting couple of months of activities and events planned for you once it warms up a bit. Trust me, you do not want to miss what we have planned.

Enjoy the time off, be safe, and see you soon.

All my best,

Dr. Krissy Surface
