

Question Time

1 I am aware that some Universities in the US provide extra funding, in addition to regular funding, to international student organizations when they hold events to celebrate their major ethnic holidays. Will Student Affairs consider follow suit by doing the same to international student organizations on campus?

2 In light of the above question, what are Student Affairs' plans to better support international student organizations?

L. Lin