

Question Time

According to an estimate from the American Council on Education, Purdue University Fort Wayne should get an additional $18.5 million from the newly passed stimulus act.

1. When will the university make a public announcement regarding the precise amount we will receive?
2. Will Senate have an opportunity to weigh in with recommendations on how that money gets spent, before decisions get reached on how to spend it?

S. Carr