SUBJ: Approval of revision to IPFW Code of Student Rights,
Responsibilities, and Conduct, Part III, sec. 4.

DISPOSITION: To the Purdue University Board of Trustees for approval

WHEREAS, The IPFW Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct does not specify the composition of the Campus Appeals Board Hearing Panel and,

WHEREAS, Indiana-Purdue Student Government Association has expressed concern that the current code does not ensure adequate student representation on the Hearing Panel,

RESOLVED, That the Senate approve the following amendment.

IPFW Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct

Part III 4. Campus Appeals Board

a. Composition. The Campus Appeals Board shall consist of nine members selected in the following manner: Four students appointed by the president of Indiana-Purdue Student Government Association subject to confirmation by the Student Senate; three faculty members elected by the Fort Wayne Senate; and two administrative staff members appointed by the chief administrative officer, one of whom shall be designated as chair of the Campus Appeals Board.

An equal number of alternates from each constituent group shall be appointed at the same time and in the same manner as the regular members. From such panels of members and alternates, the chair shall designate the particular members as may be necessary for a hearing. a hearing panel consisting of a minimum of five members including at least two students.
