

Question Time

Has the Office of Academic Affairs or its designee changed its guidelines for review of academic programs and begun instructing external reviewers it engages to evaluate solely undergraduate degree majors and not graduate degrees, minors, certificates, or other academic programs housed within the department undergoing review?

S. Carr